Pursuant to the provisions of article 20 of the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations, the voting on the proposed resolutions shall be calculated using the following procedure:

- a) votes in favor shall be considered to be those corresponding to all the shares attending the meeting, present and represented, deducting (i) the votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or representatives state that they vote against, vote in blank or abstain, by communicating or expressing their vote or abstention to the Secretary or the Notary, in the event of their attendance, for recording in the minutes; and (ii) the votes corresponding to the shares whose holders or representatives have left the meeting prior to the vote on the proposed resolution in question and have recorded such abandonment before the Secretary or, as the case may be, the Notary;
- b) the communications or statements to the Secretary or, as the case may be, to the Notary, provided for in the preceding paragraph and relating to the sense of the vote or abstention may be made individually in respect of each of the proposed resolutions or jointly for several or all of them, expressing to the Secretary or the Notary, the identity and condition -shareholder or representative- of the person making them, the number of shares to which they refer and the sense of the vote or, as the case may be, the abstention.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in accordance with the provisions of article 17 of the Company's bylaws, shareholders entitled to attend and vote may cast their vote on the proposals relating to the items included in the Agenda through the following means of remote communication:

- a) By postal correspondence, sending to the Company the attendance and voting (available at www.wejungle.com) or the card issued by the entity or entities in charge of keeping the book-entry register duly signed and completed, or other written means which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, allows the identity of the shareholder exercising his voting rights to be duly verified.

right is exercised incorporates a legally recognized electronic signature used by the shareholder, or another type of electronic signature considered suitable by the Board of Directors, as it provides adequate guarantees of authenticity and identification of the shareholder exercising his voting right.

The vote cast by the systems referred to in the preceding paragraph shall only be valid when it has been received by the Company at least 24 hours prior to the time scheduled for the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting on first call.

The vote cast remotely may only be rendered ineffective:

- a) By subsequent and express revocation made by the same means used for casting the vote, and within the period established for this.
- b) By attendance at the meeting of the individual shareholder who cast the vote or of the individual representative of the shareholder that is a legal entity.
- c) By the disposal of the shares whose ownership confers the right to vote, of which the Company is aware, prior to the fifth calendar day before the date set for the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

If, in relation to any of the items on the Agenda, the direction of the vote is not expressly indicated, it shall be understood that the vote is in favor of the proposal of the Board of Directors.

Shareholders who cast their vote remotely in the terms indicated in this section shall be considered as present for the purposes of the constitution of the General Shareholders' Meeting. Consequently, proxies issued prior to the casting of the absentee vote shall be deemed revoked and those granted subsequently shall be deemed not to have been granted.

RIGHT OF INFORMATION

Up to the seventh (7th) day prior to the day scheduled for the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting, shareholders may request from the directors any information or clarifications they deem necessary regarding the matters included in the Agenda, or submit in writing any questions they deem pertinent, in accordance with the provisions of article 197 of the Spanish Companies Act.

Requests for information shall be answered, once the identity and shareholder status of the applicant has been verified, prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting.

During the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Company's shareholders may verbally request such information or clarifications as they deem appropriate regarding the matters included in the Agenda. If the shareholder's right cannot be satisfied at that time, the administrators shall be obliged to provide the requested information in writing within seven (7) days following the end of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The directors shall be obliged to provide the information requested under the two preceding paragraphs, unless such information is unnecessary for the protection of the shareholder's rights, or there are objective reasons to consider that it could be used for non-commercial purposes or its disclosure would be detrimental to the company or related companies.

The requested information may not be denied when the request is supported by shareholders representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the share capital.

SUPPLIMENT TO THE AGENDA

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 172 of the Spanish Companies Act, from the moment the General Meeting is called, shareholders representing at least 5% of the share capital may request the publication of a supplement to the notice of the Meeting, including one or more items on the Agenda. The exercise of this right must be made by means of a reliable notification to be received at the Company's registered office (located at C/Antonio Maura N° 16, 5° dcha, Madrid) within five (5) days following the publication of the notice of the meeting.
